MALTA, July 2.

THE Gallies of the Order which lately sail'd from hence to block up Tunis, having met with eight Galliots and a few Pinks at a small Distance from that Port, they immediately attack'd them. The Turks made a vigorous Defence; but at last our Gallies took four Galliots and three Pinks from the Enemy, and sunk the rest. We lost above 100 Men in this Action, among whom are several Knights. Near 300 Turks have been taken Prisoners, and we releated above 200 Christians that were in the Enemy's Ships.

Madrid, July 11. By Letters from the Philippine Islands we are informed, that the Mahometans continue to persecute the Christians and Missionaries of the Isles of Calaminnes and Mindoro; that the Barbarians there had oblig'd the Christians to retire to the Mountains; that they had plundered the Convents of the consecrated Plate, &c. That on the 23d of October the Moors of the Island of Tidor, after having stripp'd the chief Missionary there, bound and whipp'd him inhumanly, and afterwards cut off his Hands and his Head, which they carry'd in Triumph thro' the whole Island, after having cast his Body into the Sea; and that on the 20th of May, 1740, the same Moors also took another Missionary Preacher, and stripp'd off his Cloaths, and then dragg'd him aboard a Vessel by a Rope which they fastened about his Waist.

July 11. Since the arrival of the last Courier from Versailles, the ultimate Orders have been issued for the Geueral Officers to repair to Catalonia, and this Week the Infant Don Philip's Field Equipage will be sent away.

Edinburgh, July 20. 'Tis currently reported that the Rev. Mr. Whitefield is arrived at Leith.

Paris, July 20. We have received a Confirmation that the Troops design'd for Bavaria are actually marching to the Place of Rendezvous, in order to pass the Rhine the 4th of next Month: And we are assur'd that the Court has resolv'd to make that Army stronger than was intended at first, so that it will consist of 50 Battalions and 70 Squadrons, making about 40,000 Men. The Army that is to assemble on the Moselle and on the Maese near Givet, will also be very numerous.

Stockholm, July 21. Three Thousand Horse will begin their march this Day, in order to be transported to Finland.

Hanover, July 21. 'Tis remarked that the Court discovers much Coolness to the Ministers of Sweden and Bavaria, insomuch that when they desir'd an Audience, the King did not think fit to admit them; whereupon the Bavarian Minister has sent an Express to Munich for Instructions how to behave. The Indifference with which these two Ministers were treated, is ascrib'd to the Engagements entered into with France by the Senate of Sweden and the Elector of Bavaria, Engagements which are said to be very pernicious to the Empire.

Munich, August 5. The Expedition when our Troops surpriz'd the City of Passau, was thus conducted by the Supervisor of the Salt-Works in the neighbouring Village of St. Nicholas. On the 30th, two Battalions and a Squadron were detach'd from the Camp near Shardingen, which march'd all Night with some Mortars and Cannon, and arriv'd at the Place about Two o'Clock in the Morning. When they came near it, the Supervisor went in a Post Chaise to one of the Gates of the City, and sending for the Porter by whom he was known, he desir'd him to open it, because he had some very earnest Business in the Town, but should return again soon. The Porter open'd the Door, when with the Supervisor (who, looking about for the Sword, which he pretended to have lost, gave Time for the others to advance) there rush'd in a Party of the Grenadiers with Bayonets at the End of their Musquets, who instantly seiz'd the Gate, and were closely follow'd by the Horse and the rest of the Detachment, who posted themselves in the High Streets. Then the Commanding Officer rang'd five Companies of Dragoons before the Palace of the Cardinal Bishop, who was no sooner awake but he demanded Audience of him, when he was admitted, and delivered him a Letter from the Elector his Master, adding withal by Word of Mouth, that if his Eminence was not disposed to admit the Garrison, he had Orders to withdraw his Troops, but that when he went out he would certainly set Fire to the four Corners of the City, and at the same Time cause it to be bombarded and cannonaded. The Cardinal consented to what he could not prevent.

Since the Bavarians have taken Possession of the Town and Citadel of Passau, they are repairing the Fortifications with all possible Diligence; and adding some new Works to them. Their Camp at Schardingen consists already of upwards of 8000 Men, and more Troops are marching thither every Day.

Paris, Aug. 9. Never were the publick Affairs of Europe in a more fluctuating State than at present: Ever since the Death of the late Emperor, Politicks, in almost every Court, have been as variable as the Weather; and, if any Credit is to be given to our freshest Advices, that of Sardinia, hitherto so faithful to the Cardinal Point, is on the very Instant of being govern'd by Winds directly opposite. In plain English, 'tis given out, that his Sardinian Majesty is to be married to the second Archdutchess, who is to have the Milanese for her Dowry; by which Means that Prince will obtain an easy Possession of what the House of Savoy has so long contended for; after which he will neither have Pretence nor Excuse for opposing the Queen of Hungary; on the contrary, it will be his natural Interest to support her with all his Forces, againſt all Oppoſition whatever. If this, therefore, ſhould be true, the Death of the late Queen of Sardinia may be juſtly eſteem'd one of the moſt Important Events which has lately happen'd on this Side of the Globe.

The Preparations for War are continued here with more Vigour than ever, and ſcarce a Day paſſes but ſome of the Equipages of the Officers are forwarded to Bavaria or elſewhere.

BOSTON, October 19.

Laſt Wedneſday arrived here (as Prize) a large French Ship, taken a few Leagues from Madeira, by the Succeſs Man of War, Capt. Thomſon Commander, who ſail'd from Plymouth the 3d of Auguſt laſt for this Station. The Prize is reckon'd 300 Tuns, mounts near 20 Guns, and is deep loaded with valuable Merchandize, the Produce of the King of Spain's Dominions in the Weſt-Indies. 'Tis ſaid ſhe has on board, among other Things, an hundred Tons of Cocoa, and a vaſt Quantity of Pieces of eight; ſome ſay 300,000, others 130,000, but all agree that ſhe is a prodigious rich Prize, not worth leſs than 100,000*l* ſterling. She had been at ſeveral Spaniſh Ports, but came laſt from the Havana, and when the Captain found he was like to be taken, he deſtroy'd (as he thought) all his Papers that would give any Light into his Circumſtances; but the Captors luckily found the ſecond Captain's Journal, which diſcovers the whole of their Proceedings, from their ſetting out to their ſailing from the Havannah. Capt. Thomſon ſent in the Prize by his Lieutenant, and went himſelf (as is ſaid) to look for two rich Ships which he heard were ready to ſail from the Canaries; however, he is ſoon expected here.
